

Dear attendees of MMOS I and II,

Here's hoping that you were blessed by attending our Bishop's Men's Morning of Spirituality. It's wonderful to see Catholic men from throughout the diocese get together to strengthen their faith.

Though we come from varied backgrounds, what we have in common is our Catholic faith, which touches virtually all cultures and countries around the world. Here in Memphis, we have made great strides in establishing several new Men's Groups (now 12 and counting) around the Diocese.

These groups exist to help men in their Christian walk, to be better husbands, fathers, providers and citizens. From pornography to excessive workloads, it is hard to be the man that God wants us to be.

Scripture says that iron sharpens iron, so let's get together and learn the faith, share the load, and hold each other accountable.

The Fisher of Men web site www.castyournets.org will show you the time, day and location of the current Men's Group meetings. We strongly encourage you to attend one of these meetings as a participant, or as a future leader of a new men's group in your parish.

Please know that we have a roster of several veteran Fishers of Men anxious to answer questions and/or provide individual assistance in gaining your involvement. You can make an inquiry to one of the specific group leaders at www.castyournets.org/fomgroups.html or, send a general inquiry to www.info@castyournets.org. We look forward to hearing from you.

Lastly, please mark your calendar for MMOS III on Feb. 16, 2008 at The Cathedral. We will have an all-new lineup of top notch speakers eager to share their walks of faith as fellow men of your Catholic Faith.

Yours in Christ,
West Tennessee Fishers of Men
